In Government order No 808–10/Ed 19 d the 15th July 1902, an establishment costing Rs 146 a month was sanctioned (Mr Rowlatt) for Mr T R Venkatasamy Naidu deputed for inspection work. But in the order finally giving effect to the arrangement, it was observed by Govt "As the duties of the Assistant "are at present defined, it will "still be necessary to keep in the "office of the Dpl the history of the "services, etc, of the masters and "others employed in the districts "assigned to the Assistant from "time to time. in the Dfl's office"

With reference to this direction, the Dfl now submits that Mr T R Venkatasawmi Naidu may be given the 4 clerks sanctioned in the Govt order of the 15th July 02 cited above, as it is necessary that the service registers of school masters and others employed in the districts assigned to him (Mr T R V) should be maintained in his office also The Dfl says that without such registers the previous history etc of the teachers etc will not be known to Mr Venkatasawmy Naidu

In these circumstances, the Dfl requests that the four clerks sanctioned for Mr T R V's office may be attached to the latter office only and that the Comptroller may accordingly be instructed to disburse the pay of the four clerks instead of three

SIR,

With reference to para 3 of Order No G 1831/2 dated 17th October 1903, I have the honour to inform you that the history of the services of all employés of the Education Department throughout the State has been kept in the Inspector-General's office and must be maintained in future in any case.

2. To enable Mr Venkataswami Nayudu to exercise the powers that will be assigned to him under the new Rules, he must know the previous history of the services of the masters under him. It is absolutely necessary therefore that he should maintain in his own office the history of services of the masters of the Districts in which he inspects schools. I shall therefore allow him to avail himself of the whole establishment sanctioned for his office by Order No 808-10-Ed 19 dated 15th July 1902. I request that instructions may be issued to the Comptroller to disburse the pay of all the four clerks that have been sanctioned.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
